SOUTHERN ARIZONA LEGAL AID, INC.

ESTABLISHING PATERNITY

USE AND DISCLAIMER

These forms shall not be used to engage in the unauthorized practice of law. Court cases can be very complicated, and even if you are representing yourself you should see a lawyer for legal advice as to how the law applies to you, and what is best in your particular situation. This might save you time, money, and trips to the courthouse. There are lawyers who will help you help yourself. This means that they will only charge you for giving you the help you need, and you can complete the court papers on your own or ask the lawyer for help on the papers you are having trouble with.

Also there are people in the community who can help you with your problems - they are called mediators. They help you solve your present problem, and anticipate future problems and how to solve them too. Mediators work with both parties in a dispute to help resolve areas of disagreement or trouble.

A list of individuals, agencies and other resources available to help people resolve legal problems is available at the Self-Service Center.

WHEN FILLING OUT ANY COURT FORMS

WHEN TO USE THIS FORM:

Use this form if you want to get a court order of paternity, custody and parenting time, and also child support if you do not already have that order. If you now want a court order for child custody and parenting time, and you already have a support order, the court will also review that child support order. If the child support order needs to be changed, the court will do so in this case. If there is no child support order, the court will establish child support in this case along with paternity, custody and parenting time.

If you already have a court issued Paternity Order, but custody, parenting time and/or child support have not been established, use the packet entitled “Child Custody and Parenting Time” instead.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT WHEN YOU CAN BRING A CHILD CUSTODY CASE IN THE SUPERIOR COURT

IN ARIZONA: You should generally have resided in Arizona with the child(ren) for the last 6 months, or Arizona must have been the child(ren)'s primary place of residence for the greater part of his or her life if the child is less than 6 months old. If you have questions regarding this requirement, see a lawyer before filing.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT WHEN YOU CAN SUE A DEFENDANT IN ARIZONA FOR PATERNITY AND/OR CHILD SUPPORT:

You can sue a person (the Defendant) in Arizona on a case to establish paternity, to establish child support, or to enforce, or change a child support order, if ONE OR MORE of the following is true about the Defendant:

- The person is a resident of Arizona;
- You personally serve the person in Arizona;
- The person agrees to have the case heard here and files written papers in the court case;
- The person lived with the child in this state at some time;
- The person lived in this state and provided pre-birth expenses or support for the child;
- The child lives in this state as a result of the acts or directions of the person;
- The person had sexual intercourse in this state as a result of which the child may have been conceived;
- The person signed a birth certificate that is filed in this state; or
- The person did any other acts that substantially connect the person with this state.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE:

Unfortunately, domestic violence can be part of any relationship. Domestic violence can include physical violence directed against you or your children such as hitting, slapping, pushing, or kicking. It can also include threats of physical violence made against you and your children, or regular verbal abuse used to control you. The other party does NOT need to have been convicted of domestic violence or assault for you to be a domestic violence victim, and you do not need to have sought medical care or been admitted to a hospital to be a victim.

If you are a victim of domestic violence or threats of domestic violence, you can obtain an Order of Protection from the court. This Order of Protection will order the other party to stay away from you and from your children if they are also victims or potential victims of the abuse. If you need an immediate Order of Protection before you are ready to file the Paternity Complaint, you can request such an Order between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. at the Tucson City Court, 103 East Alameda Street, Tucson, telephone number 791-4971; the Pima County Consolidated Justice Court, 115 North Church Avenue, 2nd floor, Tucson, telephone number 740-3171; the Pima County Juvenile Court Center, 2225 East Ajo Way, Tucson, telephone number 740-2045; the Pima County Superior Court Clerk's Office, 110 West Congress, 1st floor, Tucson, telephone number 740-3210. After 4:30 p.m. weekdays, or at any time on a weekend or holiday, an emergency Order of Protection can be requested by contacting the Tucson Police Department at 741-4444 or the Pima County Sheriff's Department at 740-4900. In case of an emergency call 911.

If you are ready to file your Paternity Complaint or have already filed your Paternity Complaint and also need an Order of Protection, you must request the Order of Protection from the Superior Court where you file the Paternity Complaint. The Clerk of the Court will have the papers you need to do this. If you have an existing Order of Protection from City Court, it will have to be transferred to Superior Court when you file your Paternity Complaint.

ALL COURT DOCUMENTS WILL REQUEST YOUR ADDRESS AND PHONE NUMBER. IF YOU ARE A VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, ARE IN A DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTER, OR YOU DO NOT WANT YOUR ADDRESS KNOWN IN ORDER TO PROTECT YOURSELF OR YOUR CHILDREN, IF POSSIBLE, GET A P.O. BOX OR USE ANOTHER VALID MAILING ADDRESS ON THESE PAPERS.

Additional information on how to obtain an Order of Protection is available at the Self-Service Center.

- Check this box if all the children for whom you want this paternity order have lived in Arizona for the past 6 months, or the greater part of his/her life if the child is less than 6 months old.

STATEMENTS ABOUT PATERNITY

Check which party you believe is the father of the child(ren) and check every block that applies as to why you think that person is the father of these children? Attach the appropriate documents to your Complaint.

- AFFIDAVIT: Mark this box if both you and the OTHER party signed an Affidavit of Paternity stating that the Plaintiff or the Defendant is the father of the child(ren). Attach a copy of the Affidavit to the Paternity Complaint.
- BIRTH CERTIFICATE: Mark this box and print the father's name here if the father is named on each child's birth certificate and if the certificate has been signed by both the mother and father. Attach a copy of the birth certificate(s) to the Complaint.
- DNA/BLOOD TEST: Mark this box if paternity has been established through a DNA/Blood test of the mother, father and child(ren). Print the name of the person found to be the father. Attach a copy of the test result to the Complaint.
- PARTIES LIVING TOGETHER: Mark this box if the people you say are the father and mother were not married to each other but were living together and having sexual intercourse during the 10 months before the birth of the child(ren).
- PARTIES HAVING SEXUAL INTERCOURSE: Mark this box if the parties were not living together but had sexual intercourse at the probable date of conception, and to your knowledge the mother did not have intercourse with anyone else at that time.
- OTHER: Mark this box if there is some reason that you believe the party you checked is the father of the child(ren).
- Tell the court whether the mother was married at the time the child(ren) were born or conceived, or at least 10 months before the child(ren) were born. If she was, you must add the HUSBAND to the court case as a Defendant, even if you say that the husband is not the father of the child(ren).

OTHER STATEMENTS MADE TO THE COURT

- If there are any unreimbursed expenses incurred by the mother for the birth of the child, check which party you feel should be ordered to pay these expenses.
- This states that if there are any expenses incurred for the child(ren), they should be divided by the parties proportionate to their incomes.
- Check this block ONLY if there has been NO domestic violence between the parties.
- This states that you can file this action in Pima County so long as one of the parties or the children live here.

REQUESTS I MAKE TO THE COURT - here you list what you want the court to order.

- Enter the name of the person you think is the father of the child(ren).
- If the true father's name is not on the birth certificate of the child(ren), check this block and enter the name of the father.
- If the child(ren)'s last name is different from that of the father, complete this if you want that last name to be changed to the last name of the father.
- Child Custody and Parenting Time (Visitation)
 - Sole Custody - If you are requesting one party to have sole custody of the minor children, check this box and then check the appropriate blocks regarding parenting time by the other parent.

Parenting Time:

- Parenting Time - Mark this box if you want the person not having sole custody to have reasonable parenting time. Reasonable parenting time varies with the age of the child. The court offers suggested amounts of parenting time in the "Pima County Access/Visitation Guidelines" and in "The Model Parenting Time Plans." The Parenting Plan form and further information are available in the packet entitled "Custody and Parenting Time." The parents can agree on other parenting time arrangements.
- Supervised Parenting Time - Mark this box if you want the other party's parenting time to be supervised by another adult. You may request supervised parenting time if the non-custodial parent cannot adequately care for the children or cannot do so without another person present. You may request this if the person not having custody abuses drugs or alcohol, is violent or abusive, or does not have the parenting skills to care for a child without another adult present. Remember, supervised parenting time is not intended to punish the parent, but to protect the child. Be sure to list the reasons why you are requesting supervised parenting time. Also list who is going to pay the costs of supervised parenting time, if any are incurred.
- No Parenting Time - Mark this box if you want the other party to have no parenting time at all. You should check this block only if the non-custodial parent has seriously harmed, abused, or otherwise is a serious danger to the child's physical and/or emotional health. This is a last resort to protect the child.
- Joint Custody - If you are requesting joint custody, mark this box. You and the other party should complete a Joint Custody Agreement and Parenting Plan and attach a copy to your Complaint.
- Child Support - Indicate which parent is to pay child support. The person who has custody of the child(ren), or who has physical care of the child(ren) more than 50% of the time, is the person who should receive the support. The other party must pay the support. The amount of the support is generally determined by income of the parties according to the Arizona Child Support Guidelines. The amount of child support does not have to be specifically stated at this time, but it will need to be computed later so that it can be specifically listed in the Paternity Order.
- Expenses of Mother - Complete this block if there are any unreimbursed expenses incurred by the mother related to the birth of the child(ren).
- Medical and Dental Insurance and Health Care Expenses for Children - Mark one box only. Tell the court which parent should be required to provide medical and dental insurance for the children. Whichever parent has the most affordable plan available through their employment, where applicable, should generally pay the insurance. Adjustments can be made to child support to reflect costs of insurance for the children.

- Tax Exemption - The Arizona Child Support Guidelines and federal tax laws determine who should get the tax dependency exemptions, for which children, for which years. If you are not sure, you should see a lawyer or an accountant for help.
- Testing and Costs - If paternity is contested both you and the other party will be ordered to submit to a test necessary to establish paternity.
- Other Orders - Tell the court anything else you may want ordered in your paternity action that has not been covered elsewhere in your complaint. If none, enter "None."
